HORTON-SPAUGH

The wedding of two of Farmington's most popular young society people occurred at one o'clock p. m., on Thursday, May 17th, when Dr. Edward Linn Horton and Miss Ruth Erskine Spaugh were married by Rev. Warner DuBose assisted by Rev. Weeks, of the Compton Heights Baptist church, St. Louis.

The simple, beautiful, impressive ring ceremony of the Presbyterian church was used, the contracting parties being grouped before the east window at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. E. L. Spaugh, where had been banked woodland blossoms and ferns in exquisite profusion, the couple being unattended.

The bride was gown in a cloth gown of dark blue with hat to match with a corsage bouquet of purple orchids, lilies of the valley and maiden-hair fern.

None but the members of the immediate families of the bride and groom were present, and the happy couple, after enjoying dainty refreshments immediately following the ceremony, departed in automobiles for Rock Springs where they took the train for St. Louis, Washington, New York and other eastern points for a honeymoon stay of two weeks.

Upon returning to Farmington Mr. and Mrs. Horton will reside temporarily at the home of the bride's mother on First street until their own pretty new cottage in the West end is completed.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mrs. E. L. Spaugh and one of the most popular and accomplished of Farmington's younger society. Dr. Horton has been successfully established in the practice of dentistry in Farmington for some years, and like the lovely bride he has won a large circle of friends all of whom wish them both long years of happiness and all that life holds of contentment and rosy future. In these good wishes the Times heartily joins.

Elvins Couple Plead Guilty to Grand Larceny—Get Minimum Penalty
Other Circuit Court News

Circuit Court convened on Monday morning with Judge Peter Huck of Ste. Genevieve presiding. The other officers of the Court, C. P. Wilkison, clerk, Taylor Smith, official stenographer, and J. C. Williams sheriff, assisted by his deputies, C. H. Adams and John Hibbits, were all present.

The Docket for this term is not very heavy. The Judge together with the Prosecuting attorney and officers of the Court are proceeding rapidly in the disposition of the business and the prosecution of the work of the term. Judge Huck seems unwilling to brook any delays and therefore the schedule of the Docket is being followed.

Wednesday one of the most important cases so far tried came up when Maude and Claude Haile, man and wife, who have been living at Elvins, drew a sentence of two years in the penitentiary upon the confession of guilt as charged in the information of Grand Larceny.

Thursday afternoon a lesson was administered to one, John Sutton, for disturbing the peace of certain citizens by being drunk and undertaking to ride a passenger train at Bonne Terre. A jury after being out for a short time said that he should go to jail for a term of thirty days and pay a fine of ten dollars.

Other Proceedings

In the case of Belle Sandman vs Estate of Thos. J. Cain et al, appeal from Probate Court. Claim for services as nurse. Ordered docketed.

In the case of Theo. Vavriak and Joseph Vavriak, minor, by next friend vs Federal Lead Co. Petition and bond filed for removal to Federal Court.

State of Missouri vs Arthur Halsey, charged with carrying concealed weapons. Fine and same ordered stayed on condition of good behavior.

State of Missouri vs Wright Pritchett, two cases, selling to minors. Continued on account of illness in family of Defendants counsel.

Farmers Bank et al vs John McBrien, to annul deed. Defendant filed an application for change of venue.

Henry McDowell vs Celeste McDowell, divorce. Defendant filed answer and cross bill and motion to make the Lead Belt Bank and the Peoples Bank of Bonne Terre parties co-defendants. Motion sustained.

State of Missouri vs Frank Williams charged with disturbing the peace. Plea of guilty is entered and a fine of $5 and cost assessed.

Anna Smart vs Marion Smart, divorce. Decree granted on payment of cost.

Doe Run Lead Co., vs Estate John Mitchell, dismissed at cost of plaintiff.

St. Francois County Bank vs Mart Swinford et al, action on note. J. A. Welmer and John S. Wood filed motion for judgement against co-defendant by subrogation.

State of Missouri vs John Tomchok felonious assault. Case was called for trial and jury empaneled. After the close of the state's testimony the case was dismissed.

State ex rel Collector vs M. H. Dowling et al, delinquent taxes. Same paid and cause dismissed.

In the matter of the Estate of John M. Pritchett, deceased, vs Doe Run Lead Co., damages. A judgement of $1.00 awarded plaintiff by consent and satisfaction acknowledged. Also a similar end came to the case of E. H. Brand vs St. Joe Lead Co.

In the case of Alonzo Hartzell charged with felonious assault (rape) Defendant plead guilty to the charge and was assessed a fine of $100.00 and cost.

Estate of Peter Choniski, deceased vs St. Joe Lead Co., damages. Judgement by confession for plaintiff of $300.00, and satisfaction acknowledged.

Wm. P. Slade vs Nancy Slade, divorce. Defendant filed answer and cross bill.

State of Missouri vs R. R. S. Parsons, violation of the eight hour law. Defendant filed motion to quash the information, alleging as a reason therefor that the St. Joe Lead Co. and not the management or employers, should have been indicted. After lengthy arguments, the motion was taken by Judge Huck under advisement.

Saturday afternoon from three till six o'clock Mrs. Taylor Smith gave a "Kitchen Shower" in honor of Miss Ruth Sprague, the bride of Thursday. Miss Sprague received many useful presents. Delicious refreshments were served and a most enjoyable afternoon was spent.

PROGRESSIVE STATE CONFERENCE

Half the Counties of the State Represented at Kansas City Last Week

Pursuant to the call of State Chairman Leighton A. Ellis, the state committee of the Progressive party met at Coats House in Kansas City, Mo., last Friday afternoon. In sending out the call for the meeting, Mr. Ellis had suggested that county chairmen and other interested workers would be welcome.

Accordingly, about a hundred leading members of the Moose party, representing over fifty counties, attended the meeting. There were twenty-four members of the committee present, being the largest number that has ever attended a Progressive committee meeting in this state.

The spirit of the gathering was decidedly militant. Some of the speakers declared that they had left their former affiliation with the Republican party because that party had outlived its usefulness, had lost its conscience and had fallen into unscrupulous hands; that the people confirmed their judgment in these matters by casting nearly a million more votes for the new party than for the old one in the last election; and that now the old party bosses establish a new monument of stupidity by suggesting that the Progressives return to the party that they and the people have so overwhelmingly repudiated. They declare that Col. Roosevelt is the only national leader of any party big enough to oppose Democracy with any show of success, and that he will sweep the country in 1916 at the head of the Progressive ticket. They expect to elect several congressmen this year.

In addition to reaffirming their allegiance to the national and state platforms of 1912, the resolutions committed the party to the support of the county unit in the coming election. Annihilation with any other party was declared to be out of the question.

THE FARMINGTON CHAUTAUQUE PROGRAM EXCELLENT

The program for this year is a winner. It will start off with a rousing concert by the Chautauque Six, a sextette of winsome girls who have varied programs of literary and musical stunts, calculated to set a merry pace for those who have to follow. The afternoon lecture will be given by Hon. B. F. McDonald, a noted attorney from Ohio, whose experience at the bar of justice has peculiarly qualified him to deliver his great lecture "Moonshine."

The same company will give the full evening program and will be both concert and literary.

The second day, the Beach Trio, made up of three accomplished young lady artists, will furnish the music. Their prelude, in the afternoon, will be followed by a lecture by Dr. E. T. Hagerman of Milwaukee, a standard Lyceum lecturer who injects a great deal of humor into his remarks.

In the evening after a concert of forty-five minutes duration by the same company, Dr. Wm. Rader of San Francisco, will deliver an illustrated lecture on the Panama Canal, throwing upon the scene beautiful colored views of the Panama Country and exhibiting some motion pictures of actual scenes of the construction of the big ditch.

The third day the Orphean Quartet will furnish the music. After their prelude, Gov. Ashton C. Shallenberger of Nebraska, will deliver his lecture. Mr. Shallenberger is one of the strong men of the middle west, and the Chautauque management is to be congratulated on securing such a strong character for the summer Chautauque work.

In the evening the Orphean Quartet will give the full evening program of the varied musical kind.

On the fourth day The Regniers will furnish the music. The Regniers are man and wife who carry wigs, grease paint, and make up and deliver a program with a great many humorous qualities as well as such artistic worth. In the afternoon their program will be followed by Hazel Kefford, an accomplished reader and impersonator.

In the evening after a prelude by the Regniers, there will be a lecture by George Gibbons Yarrow of New York on the interesting subject, "The Culture of Your Personality."

On the last day, a great Orchestra is coming to furnish the music. This is the Hungarian Orchestra organized in Chicago by Signor Joseph Perrante. In the afternoon, after thirty minutes' prelude by this company, Mr. Homer M. Cook, one of the most prominent (Continued on Page 5)

WHO PAYS FOR THE ADVERTISING?

The other day I talked to a department manager in a St. Louis haberdashery on Olive street, which has just lately spread out a bit by occupying the adjoining store, formerly operated by a competitor. I asked this department manager "what did it cost?"

And he said: "The advertising these folks DIDN'T do."

And he hit the nail squarely on the head. This concern's advertising (which is regular, persistent, rather than overwhelming in amount) has built a splendid store from a small beginning. And when you come to consider the thing down to bed rock, it was that COMPETITOR who DID NOT advertise, who paid for it in the end.

There seems to be an idea that prevails more or less in Farmington that advertising is an expense—to be minimized as much as possible, or dispensed with entirely if there's any chance at all.

But if you'll notice, it's the advertiser who spends the MOST who do it most willingly, because they have found out an expense it is an investment—an investment in public confidence, stability, the power to endure through any competition, through adversity, through anything. That's just why advertising is a BUILDER of business. The idea should or must immediately "attract a crowd" like the auctioneer's strident voice or the bell-ringing of his drummer-up is so old it has whiskers on it, and is a joke to those advertisers who have made it pay.

I'm not hired, however, to sermonize on you what is good and bad advertising. I'm paid to HELP YOU, Mr. Advertiser, whoever you are, to MAKE IT PAY. So I renew the invitation—come up and talk it over with me. I haven't the time nor the disposition to hang around against your will. But if you ARE the "live one" you would have us believe, back it up—start your advertising campaign and do it now. For publication in THE TIMES, I'll write it without charge.

Grandmas Money

"Grandma" hoarded her little savings until she had $60.00. She hid this in her little house—where nobody could find it!

"Grandma" forgot that the walls have eyes. One night when she was putting her money into its hiding place, a pair of greedy eyes peered through a crack and saw what she was doing. Then, while "Grandma" slept, a pair of long fingers robbed her of her precious $60.00. "Grandma" lives in Missouri, and this is a true incident.
